Disclaimer:

If students are not following the dress code, they will be given an opportunity to borrow the appropriate clothes from the school or will call home for parents to bring appropriate clothes for them to change into. In order to minimize loss of class time, please ensure that your child is in compliance with the dress code.

All other aspects of the OMS dress code are under the discretion and judgment of the school staff. Adverse behavior by individuals wearing similarly identified items will be addressed by administration. This policy may be subject to change pending administrative action.
